

Richard C. Shaw
Vice President, Private Banking
Comerica Bank

Board Treasurer

Richard Shaw has twenty-five years of banking experience in Dallas, Texas. He currently provides financial advice to families to meet their financial goals and objectives. Richard specializes in providing creative financing solutions for individuals. Before joining the Wealth & Institutional Management division of Comerica Bank, he spent twenty years with JPMorgan Chase Bank.

Richard has served on the Board of Trustees of Citizens Development Center since 2005 and Treasurer since 2007. He is keenly aware of the need to provide opportunities for people with disabilities because his sister's struggles in life. In addition to CDC, Richard has served as an Elder in his church and coached various sports teams for his children.

Richard was born and raised in Dallas and graduated from Southern Methodist University with a Bachelors of Business Administration. Richard and his wife, Elizabeth, have five children, Andrew, Cameron, Brandon, Connor, and Caroline.